BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

APPLICATION OF CASE ENTERPRISES,) INC. FOR A RATE ADJUSTMENT PURSUANT)
TO THE ALTERNATIVE RATE FILING)	CASE NO. 91-019
PROCEDURE FOR SMALL UTILITIES)

O R D E R

On September 25, 1991, Case Enterprises, Inc. ("Case") filed its response to the Commission's Order of August 21, 1991. In its response, Case proposed to recover an additional $19,190.63 through a surcharge spread over 5 years. In order to consider this adjustment, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, within 10 days of the date of this Order, Case shall file 7 copies of the following information:

1. Concerning the $7,500 invoice from Collins and Love, CPA, provide a detailed analysis of the hours, rates per hour, and miscellaneous expense charged for each component of the total bill. The analysis should show for example the amount of time and cost involved in preparing the billing analysis, in computing the acquisition adjustment, in setting up Case's books, etc.
2. Provide an explanation as to why the arrearage applicable to the Justiceville system customers should be spread over the Lyda system customers as well as the Justiceville system customers.

3. Concerning the proposed surcharge, provide the rate that would be required if the recovery of the past due gas purchases were applied to only the Justiceville system customers.

4. Provide a copy of the official, executed Security Agreement and Mortgage in the principal amount of $87,993.44 made between Case and the Department of Local Government ("DLG"). Include with this a copy of the amortization table and repayment schedule (if different).

5. Concerning the DLG mortgage agreement requested in item 5 above, if the date repayment of the debt is to commence differs from the statement made by Ann Case in the hearing on Case No. 91-191¹ wherein Ms. Case stated that repayment would not begin until 1993, explain the discrepancy.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 17th day of October, 1991.
